Let me know if you do this workshop again. August 15 is a busy deadline for me so I wasn't able to sign up.

Pam,

Just want to make sure you'll have a chance to join us on 8/15. We won't be doing it again until at least October, so if you're interested be sure to sign up as we'll be sending out a replay to all registrants.

All of the details are below.

Thanks,
Josh

Pam - We're both in the CPA Trendlines group and I came across your profile. I thought you might be interested in a complimentary online workshop I'm hosting on August 15, How Accounting Firms Can Generate Consistent Leads with LinkedIn.

If you're considering a more proactive approach to generating new leads and business off of LinkedIn, I'm sure you'll get a ton out of it. Among other topics, I'll be walking you through a step-by-step system that CPA's can use to generate a minimum of 60 leads per year with a 30% response rate.

For more information on the webinar, topics scheduled for discussion, and to register, please visit this link:

Please feel free to forward this to anybody in your firm that would be interested. Hope to see you on the call.

Thank you,

Josh
