

THE APPOINTMENT GENERATOR PLAYBOOK:

The 3-Step Blueprint to Generating 10+ High-Ticket
Sales Appointments Every Month

The Experts in Lead Generation Today

Dear Business Owner,

Hi, I'm Josh Turner, Wall Street Journal bestselling author and the founder and CEO of LinkedSelling, both an Inc. 500 and an Entrepreneur.com 360 company. We are the people behind the groundbreaking, proprietary business growth solution, The Appointment Generator - the system that helps businesses generate high quality leads and produce consistent cash flow every month by creating real relationships online.

This is the system that has helped thousands of clients from all over the world (including names like Neil Patel and Microsoft) gain millions in revenue and sales.

Yet, too many people aren't getting these kinds of results. And that's because they're doing things wrong, and they're not building trust and relationships. My goal is to give you the tools to do it the right way, and to bring the handshake back into your business. We've proven that this is the best way to get the clients you need, so that you can reach the success you know is possible. I'm excited to share our system with you!

Sincerely,

Josh Turner
CEO, LinkedSelling
An Inc 500 Company

WARNING: This System Is Powerful

But only if you use it the right way.

The Appointment Generator Playbook is part 3 of 4 in “The Appointment Generator Workshop: How To Consistently Create High-Ticket Sales Opportunities In 2018,” and while it certainly holds stand-alone value... it’s much more powerful within the context of the other parts of the workshop, especially the accompanying video training lessons.

In each video training you’ll discover more detail, specific examples, and insight to get a deeper understanding of how to use The Appointment Generator system to grow your business.

The good news is that the entire 4-part workshop is still available at no cost to you. Welcome to The Appointment Generator Playbook

This system was not born out of a moment of genius, but rather out of necessity. When I first got started in my business, I knew that I needed to be proactive when it comes to getting new clients. I knew that if I could build relationships with just a few high-value prospects, instead of going after just anybody who'd bite, that I could create a sustainable business.

Since then, LinkedSelling has grown to over 40 employees was named to the Inc. 500 list of fastest growing privately owned companies in the United States 2 years in a row, as well as to the Entrepreneur.com 360 list this past year, and we've grown our revenue from $0 to almost $8 Million Annually.

We've experienced this level of success because we do much more than simply talk the talk. Our team of account managers does this work for hundreds of clients from across the globe every single day. We are about execution and optimization... not just theory.

What you need is a simple, time efficient process to develop relationships and book sales appointments with your top prospects.

You need more sales conversations... more clients... and more cashflow... without spending every minute of your day working at it. This is how you create a personal and professional lifestyle that allows you to focus on doing what you love.

This system will show you how.

Let's dive into it...

All from the headline.

The Power of a Relationship-Based System In Action

"Within WEEKS of following the process, I closed multiple 5-figure contracts. I have quadrupled our business and am scaling for the next year. We now have a consistent 5-figures per month, and my business has gone from "I love what I do, but I hate the cash flow problem" to "I love what I do, and we can start to have fun, and we can grow the business and we can take vacations! It's been a godsend." - Dan Demers, ReMission Consulting
